

Westview wins

Caswell football award

Westview Centennial Secondary School capped a successful sports year last month by winning the Caswell Award, presented each year on a vote of all players in the North York high school football league to the team they think combines the most competitive spirit with sportsmanship and fair play.

The boys' junior football team was presented with the award at Westview's athletic banquet at the school May 28.

Westview boys' junior basketball team became North York champions this year after going into overtime in the final game at York University.

In track and field the midget boys' relay team made it to the Ontario secondary school competition June 5 and 6.

Athlete of the Year school awards were present to these students:

Senior girls — Cindy Janssen (badminton, senior soccer, gymnastics, captain of the cheer-leading squad).

Junior girls — Lisa Kikulis (junior basketball, junior volleyball, senior soccer).

Junior boys — Armando D'Agostino (senior volleyball, junior basketball, junior soccer).

Senior boys — Tony Delahaye (senior soccer, senior basketball, senior volleyball).

SENIOR GIRLS' Athlete of the Year Award was presented to Cindy Janssen by former phys-ed department head Bev Bassin who returned for this event from maternity leave

A vintage photograph of a young woman with dark, curly hair, smiling slightly and looking towards the camera. She is wearing a white t-shirt with red text that reads "NORTH YORK'S" on the front. The photo is mounted on a dark wooden surface, possibly a desk or chair back, which has some decorative elements like a small bell and a red ribbon. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the wooden structure.

NORTH
YORK'S